INDIANAPOLIS, May 3. EDITOR WARREN EXPENSE:-As my time of service is uncertain, and to avoid all difficulty and embarrassment of my friends, I have concluded to decline the race for Marshal of the city of Terre Haute. You will therefore approunce through the Express that I am no longer a candidate for that office. Trusting that this course will meet with the approval of my friends, I remain, Yours, truly, JABEZ SMITH.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS COURT.-The Board of County Commissioners meet on the first retail expires on Wednesday, those interested should bear this in mind.

MOVEMENT OF TROOPS -It is very confidently reported that the 11th Regiment (Zouaves) of Indiana Volunteers, have received orders to march, and will start to Cairo, on Tuesday morning. If so they will no doubt pass through this city.

PERSONAL -- Major C. Ogden Wood, of the Zouave regiment, has received his commission as a Lieutenant in the regular army o the United States. He is attached to the ninth infantry regiment, and his company is now on the Pacific seaboard.

We are credibly informed that the report that the colored people in the north part of this county are having regular weekly drills are wholly gratuitous and entirely incorrect, being put forth simply for political effect, by persons sympathizing with treason and secession.

Illinois Money at Par.

Mr. J. R. Tillotson, one door east of the Southern Bank, has on hand a fine stock of Clocks, Watches and Jewelry, which he will sell at fair rates, for Illinois money at par. His clocks are of the Seth Thomas make and we would be willing to guarantee them ourself. We have been there. Go with your rags and come away rich.

Some MILITARY .- The Military sport this city has not in the least degreeabated. Companies are drilling day and night. Company of Home Guards have regular company drill three nights each week and squad drill; three nights. They will receive their arms in a day or two, when they will commence w a carnest. We doubt if there is a f or company of men organized in the seen service.

At a public meeting held in Troy, Ohio, a few days ago, Rav. W. M. Cheever formerly of this city, made a most fervent and eloquent Union speech. He said we owed it not only to ourselves but to all mankind and to all future generations to maintain the Government. That he was ready to give his their way through Maryland, for the relief of troops. as last dollar to the brave volunteers, and if need be to stand shoulder to shoulder with them in defence of our flag. We suppose some of those who sympathise with southern traitors will call him an abolition preacher.

---fied with our denial that threats had been | Winchester, (Ky. ) National Union. made to hang Daniel W. Voorhees, by citizens of Terre Haute, or that he had been forced to make a Union speech and raise the the stars and stripes over his house.

In that denial we simply asserted what was true, that the information of the Gazette was wholly incorrect. Our citizens have made no threats towards Mr. Voorhees; he has not been forced to make a speech; has made no speech except one presenting a flag to a military company. Whether the stars and stripes are waving over his house we are good rooms to persons who wish to furnish them to not advised, certainly he has not been forced to raise them there by any threats from our citizens. Our citizens don't propose to mob any one for opinion's sake. If the Gazette is better informed on this subject than we are, we shauld be pleased to learn the sousce of its information. We are not Mr. Voorhee's champion-we only vindicate our citizens against aspersions.

The Spirit of '76 Cropping Out. While one of the Massachusetts regiments was in New York, on its way to Washington, a gentleman residing in the city met one of its members on the street. "Is there anything I can do for you, sir" said the New Yorker, his heart warming toward the representative of the brave Massa. chusetts militia, who had so bravely answeret the call of their country. The soldier hestitated a moment, and finally raising one of his feet, exhibited a boot with a hole in the toe, and generally worse for wear. "How came you here with such boots as that, my friend?" asked the patriotic citizen. "When O the order came for me to join my company, sir," replied the soldier. "I was ploughing in the same field at Concord where my grand father was ploughing when the British fired on the Massachusetts men at Lexington. He did not wait a morsent, and I bid not, sir." It is unnecessary to add that the soldier was immediately supplied with an excellent pair of boots.

We gain nothing by it-our slaves are no more secure -our territory is gone. Let the Border States join the Southern Confederacy and slavery is gone. Mr. Lincoln and the Marylanders.

The following account of an interview of Maryland Congressmen with President Lincoln, is from the Baltimore Exchange:

It will be remembered that, on Saturday last, Hon. Anthony Kennedy and J. Morrison Harris had an interview with President Lincoln, when the following conversation took place between them: Mr. Harris having anounced the object of their visit to be to pre-vent further bloodshed, and to obtain a recall of the orders issued for the movement of troops, Mr. Lincoln, referring to the visit of Mesars. Dobbin, Brune and Bond, and the anower which he had made to their representations, added, "My God, Mr. Harris, I don't know what to make of your people. You have sent me one committee already, and they seemed to be perfect satisfied with what folk.

I said to them." Mr. Harris replied that he A hnew nothing about that; he came as a citizen posed and a Representative, to state facts as they to send any more troops through Maryland occupy Havre de Grace. Troops will then would only lead to a battle, and a very san-guinary battle.

Mr. Lincoln answered: "My God, Sir, what am I to do? I had better go out and hang myself on the first tree I come to, than to give up thh power of the Federal Government in this way. I don't want to go through your town, or near it, if I can help it; but we must have the troops here to relief ourselves, or we shall die like rats in a heap." He further expressed some surprise at the action of Mr. Harriss, and was disposed to tax him with abandonment of the Union principles. Mr. Harris answereed the President that he was still a Union man, but he had come to state facts, and to repressent to the President the sentiments of the people, and it was one at Harper's Ferry. They are not half arm-Bate, Capt. Hough is a good officer and has of universal opposition to the passage of any Northern troops across the soil of Maryland. Nr. Seward, interposing, drew Mr. Harris aside to a window, and pointing to the bluffs of Arlington, asked Mr. Harriss if he knew that on the top of that hill the Virginians might plant a battery, and they would not knew at what moment a shell might burst in that very room. Gen. Scott, who was present, also expressed the opinion that it might be obsolutely necessary for the troops to cut the Federal Capitol
